DANVILLE.

Friday, Sept. 28, 1856.

WINTER.—We have had several heavy frosts during the past week. The first was on Monday morning, and the weather since has been "delightfully" cool.

SALES.—Mr. W. L. LIGHTFOOT's sale of crop stock, &c., takes place to-day.

The sale by Mr. JAS. E. GILLESPIE, of his valuable town residence, furniture, &c., &c., will be held on Tuesday next.

Mr. S. WRIGHT, advertiser, that her new fall stock of bonnets and millinery goods of every description, will be opened on Thursday next. She has a very large and handsome stock, embracing all the latest styles.

POSTPONEMENT.—We are requested to state that the opening of Mr. L. H. RALSTON's male school has been postponed until Monday week, October 6th, at which time it will commence, at the Locust Grove School House. The time has been changed on account of the illness of Mr. R.

FALL STYLES.—MILLINERY AND FANCY GOODS.—Mrs. H. D. COLLINS has received her fall stock of goods, embracing a large and beautiful variety of the most fashionable bonnets and other millinery goods. The ladies will of course call and see her. Advertisement next week.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.—The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist E. Church South, closed its annual session in Winchester on Thursday last. The list of appointments of preachers for the ensuing year, for which we are indebted to the kindness of Rev. Dr. Liss, will be found in another column. It will be seen that Dr. L. has been changed from the church in this place, and stationed at Lexington. Our citizens generally, and especially the church which has enjoyed his ministerial labors, will give him up with great reluctance. His eloquence in the pulpit, and his Christian sociality in every day life, have won him hosts of friends, who will much regret his departure from our midst.

Rev. Dr. L. G. HICKS, succeeds Dr. Liss, in the pastoral charge of the Methodist Church in this place. He is said to be a successful and talented pulpit orator, and a most estimable Christian gentleman.

THE FAIR.—The entire exhibition held by the Central Kentucky Association on the fair grounds near this place, during last week, passed off in an exceedingly gratifying manner. The attendance of spectators, especially on the last two days, was very great, and much satisfaction was expressed at the splendid show of stock in every department. The full list of premiums will be found in this number of our paper. It will be seen that there were a goodly number of entries in nearly every ring, so that the premiums awarded were competed for in a spirited manner.

We understand that it is the design of the Association to erect a commodious amphitheatre, before their next fair, and that a large part of the money to secure that object has already been subscribed. This will of course not only add very greatly to the comfort of all who attend the fairs, but will also give the Association a better standing abroad, thus greatly enhancing the number of spectators, and the number of entries of stock, and as a consequence giving an increased interest and attraction to the annual exhibitions. The people of this portion of the State are well able to have as handsomely improved fair grounds as are those of any other part of the Commonwealth, and we certainly have here as fine stock to exhibit as have any of the neighboring sections. We are gratified, therefore, to learn that our Association is about to make the necessary improvements in order to render their grounds equal to those of similar societies elsewhere.

Mr. BELL'S SPEECH.—The speech of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Hon. J. F. BELL, on Saturday last, was listened to by one of the largest assemblages of ladies and gentlemen we have ever seen in our Court House. His remarks throughout were heard with great attention and interest, and he was often interrupted by the enthusiastic applause of the audience. He commenced his speech by referring to his position as a Whig, and to the condition of the Whig party, stating his objections to the principles set forth and advocated by the American organization, but declaring his unhesitating preference for Mr. Fillmore over all other candidates in the field. He reviewed the life and services of Mr. F., comparing his soundness and patriotism with the Canservatism, truckling political course of Mr. Buchanan. The tribute which he paid to the worth and patriotism of Mr. Fillmore, was eloquently expressed and loudly applauded. His address was an able and statesman-like exposition of his views in regard to the political questions of the day, and we regret that our limited space will not allow us to give a synopsis of his remarks. Suffice it to say, that while still adhering to the Whig policy, he has buckled on the armor for Fillmore and the Union, and is now exerting the influence of his commanding talents and eloquence, to advance the success of the American candidates.

At the conclusion of Mr. B.'s speech, LOGAN HUNTON, Esq., being loudly called for, responded in a brief and patriotic speech, endorsing the position of Mr. Bell, declaring himself, alike with that gentleman, an old-line Whig, and a warm and decided supporter of Mr. Fillmore.

THE PREMIUM CARRIAGE.—Mr. S. B. FARRAND, of this place, received the premium at the late Fair for the best carriage, "exhibited by maker or dealer." An article in the last Harrodsburg Transcript, in reference to this award, strikes us as being characterized by an exceedingly liberal and unjust spirit. Mr. Farrand's carriages are manufactured expressly for him, and are gotten up in the finest and we suppose the best style. The premium carriage is by far the handsomest vehicle we have ever seen. It is complete in every respect, and is finished and trimmed in the most elegant manner imaginable. It appears to us to be very substantial, having every indication of being well and strongly built. It is true, this carriage was not made here, but Mr. Farrand is one of our home men, and if the Association in offering premiums, included dealers as well as makers, Mr. F. is certainly not to blame for exhibiting specimens of the splendid vehicles which he keeps for sale.

CLOTHING AT LOW PRICES.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. HENRY JACOBS, who is selling his large stock of fashionable clothing and furnishing goods at greatly reduced prices. He has a large and varied stock, and offers bargains to purchasers.

STIMPER.—We are requested to state that the ladies of Springfield design having a supper during the fair at that place, the proceeds to be given for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church. We doubt not but that the supper will be a rich display of luxuries to gratify the taste, and we are certain that the object is deserving of encouragement.

THE NATIONAL WHIG CONVENTION.—This body met in Baltimore last week. Delegates were in attendance from twenty-six States, and a more respectable and talented body of men has never assembled in the Union. The attendance far exceeded the most sanguine expectations. Great enthusiasm and unanimity prevailed during the entire session, and the resolutions, declaring their unshaken adherence to the old Whig party and principles, but expressing a decided, unhesitating preference for Fillmore and Donelson over all other candidates before the people, were received with prolonged applause.

The delegates were all Whigs—nothing but Whigs—not Democratic Blue-Ann-Sag-Night-Whigs, but true blue Clay Whigs, and their action is hailed with joy by the Americans as a high endorsement of their candidate.

After the adjournment of the Convention, a monster ratification meeting was held in Monumental square, which is said to have been one of the most magnificent displays ever witnessed in the city.

Speeches were made during the session of the Convention, by Ex-Gov. Hunt, of New York, Ex-Gov. Graham, of N. C., Hon. Edward Bates, of Missouri, Hon. Messrs. Granger of New York, Rives and Janney of Virginia, and Lucat, of Mass.

We desired to publish a full abstract of the proceedings, but our columns are so crowded, that we are compelled to defer it.

The National Intelligencer, of Wednesday says: "We have understood that the President will not at present receive a Minister from Nicaragua, owing to the unsettled political condition of that Republic."

"THE SOUTHERN SENSITIVE THOUGHT."—When Gen. Taylor was nominated in 1848, and even for some time afterwards, it was believed and reasonably believed, that he could not carry a single Northern State. It was not until late in September and early in October, that the people of the North and East began to be influenced by the silver sound thought, and their patriotism began to get the upper hand of Abolitionism. That "southern sensitive thought" is again beginning to act all over the country. Our exchanges are laden with evidences of the fact that the conservative portion of the people are rallying to the national standard of Millard Fillmore. The National Whig Convention, which met at Baltimore, one of the largest and most respectable Conventions of the year, expressed an unhesitating and unanimous preference for him. The "North Americans" who seceded from the Fillmore Convention, and nominated Commodore Stockton, at their Convention held a few days since at Rochester, resolved to support Fillmore for the Presidency. The work is going on—bravely on, and we have only to point those fearful doubters of Fillmore's strength, to the evidences which are accumulating, to show that he is the only man to beat Fremont—the only standard-bearer upon whom the conservative people of the whole country can be relied—the only man before the people who has been tried and found worthy of the confidence of all the patriots of every section. As the New York Express observes, in regard to the cry of the opposition that such a man can't be elected—"can't is ceasing already to be in our dictionary. It is right to elect Fillmore, and we'll try—that's the word—and a man never heartily tried for a thing and failed in it. God prospers the right. God crowns with victory a generous will."

HON. ELIJAH HISE AND HIS ABOLITIONISM.—This Democratic State Elector, who is just now in such high favor with his party, is distinguished and deserves to be remembered for some of the speeches which he made before the present canvass began. Previous to the August election in 1855, when the question of calling a convention was agitated, Mr. Hise in a conversation with several of his fellow-citizens, advocated the propriety of a convention, and stated that his great solicitude was to amend the Constitution, so as to SET THE SLAVES FREE; that he believed in proportion to the number of FREE NEGROES, they were as respectable a population as the whites, and would be as respectable if they were all freed. He further said, that if the negroes were freed, in less than fifty years we would be all of the same color. This outrageous declaration is proven against the Hon. gentleman by a number of respectable witnesses, who heard him make it—among them the present county judge of Logan, and several ex-members of the Legislature from that county. The same "distinguished" Democratic champion is reported to have declared publicly on the streets of Russellville, only a few weeks ago, that he would vote for Fremont, Fred. Douglas, the negro Abolitionist, or anybody else, in preference to FILLMORE.

No wonder Elijah Hise refuses to discuss politics with any other speaker. A man with such a record ought to blush black every time he attempts to address a Southern audience, and every Southern man ought to refuse to listen to the ravings of a fanatic whose antecedents are of such an Abolition character as are his.

Some idea may be formed of the attendance at our Fair, last week, when we state that on the last day, it was ascertained by an accurate counting, that 550 carriages (exclusive of passenger hacks) passed through the gate. The number of spectators on the grounds on that day was estimated at 6,500, and on the day preceding the number was certainly much greater.

"A TEMPER IN A TEA-POT."—The organs of the Sag-Nights are terribly exercised because Humphrey Marshall is reported to have declared in a speech at Lexington a few nights ago, that he "would not toss up a copper for the difference between Buchanan and Fremont"—because, (the organs neglect to add,) he regarded them both as sectional candidates, and the triumph of either of them would create a civil war along the border States. This fashion of the opposition of taking isolated sentences, and parading them before their readers as a correct index of a speaker's remarks, is unjust and unfair, but it is just as good as we can expect from them.

Two of the Democratic electors of Mississippi have refused to serve. Cause—one of them is going to vote for the American nominees, and the other's business engagements won't allow him to stamp it.

A BITTER PILL.—A Democratic Fremont Club has been formed at Concord, N. H., the residence of General Pierce composed of over one hundred members, every one of whom voted for Pierce in 1852! The call was signed by one hundred and fifty. All Democrats.
